
Java Team Lead

Are you looking for opportunities as a Senior Developer with team leading tasks? Do you want to jumpstart your career? This is your offer!

As part of the ERNI team you will be working with Swiss and German customers operating in domains such as finance, security, medical and more. Given the wide spectrum of projects, the technologies used will also be varied, enabling you to use your desktop, backend, frontend and database skills to the maximum. So, when are you going to join us?

City: Cluj, Remote
Role: Senior

Recruiter name: Terezia Borbely
Recruiter email:

Description

In this project you'll be developing a desktop application for the Swiss government to help citizens to manage their taxes. You'll be adding new features, will write technical documentation, will be constantly in touch with the client while taking responsibility for decisions and managing a small team of developers and QA engineers.

Responsibilities

- Development of new features, improvement of existing ones according to coding standards
- Problem fixing, debugging, writing unit tests
- Writing technical documentation
- Consulting with various stakeholders from the client
- Participation on process improvements and technology decisions
- Participate in technical analysis design
- Take responsibility for own decisions and actions

Job requirements

- min. 4 years of experience with Java
- Good Web development concepts
- Desktop application, backend – Java 8, Spring Core, server – Jboss, frontend : AWT
- For the old application we use Eclipse.
- IDE will be IntelliJ (used with license), working with GIT, CI Bitbucket,
- Scaled Agile – SAFE

Benefits

- Opportunity for self-improvement and career growth
- Internal & external software development education and trainings (certifications)
- Private medical services
- Flexible working time
- 22 days holiday / year + 1 extra day of holiday for every year working at the company (up to 25)
- Meal Tickets
- Referral bonus
- Sport allowance
- Individual access to e-Learning Platforms to develop both technical and soft skill with LinkedIn Learning